It appears that the amendment to the title of the application in the Amendment of January 9, 2004 (the Amendment) was incorrectly entered by the Patent Office. The correct title is "VIBRATOR HAVING A CORE WITH SOFT SHEATH AND APEARTURES-APERTURES THERETHROUGH" as shown in the Amendment. Attached herewith is a copy of the Amendment and its return postcard. It is respectfully requested that the title of the application be corrected accordingly and the patent be printed with the correct title.
